MONROE DOCTRINE SPEECH BY MR. TAFT CRITICISED

Canadian Paper Says It Hopes He Does Not Speak for Country

(By Associated Press.)
MELBOURNE, Australia, Dec. 1.—(Via London.)—The Melbourne Age, referring to the views of former President Taft, concerning the Monroe doctrine, expressed recently at Montclair, N. J., and particularly his statement that the doctrine is a thing of the past, and that the United States has abdicated the position she has been jealously guarding for a period extending upwards of eighty years.

In his address at Montclair, N. J., last Friday night, ex-President Taft said that while the landing of troops in Canada by enemies of Great Britain did not constitute a violation of the Monroe doctrine, any effort to establish a new form of government, or to overthrow a government, would violate that policy.

How to Neutralize Dangerous Stomach Acids

Few people believe physicians realize the importance of keeping the food contents of the stomach free from acid fermentation. Healthy normal digestion cannot take place when the food is fermented in the stomach. The result of fermenting food in the stomach is to produce a condition known as "acid stomach." This condition is often the cause of indigestion, and it may be stopped or prevented and the acid neutralized by taking a little "Cellarettes" from the drug store and taking a tea-spoonful of water immediately after eating. They recommend a little "Cellarettes" if it is pleasant to take. It is a disagreeable after-effect and instantly stops fermentation and digestion. It makes the more acid, bland, sweet and healthy.

The regular use of Cellarettes neutralizes the acid of the stomach, and prevents the acid condition which is the cause of trouble. (ADVERT.)

DR. OGDEN EXPLAINS HIS STAND AGAINST DANCING
Atlanta, Ga., Dec. 1, 1914.
Mr. James R. Gray, Atlanta Journal, City.
Dear Sir: I cannot refrain from entering a protest against the manner in which your Monday paper reported my sermon on dancing.

I do not complain that you reported my condemnation of the modern dances, but that you did so in such a way as to rob it of all effectiveness. Mere denunciation is of little value, and it was this very thing I sought to avoid in my sermon. The message dealt with the right and wrong of dancing under five considerations: 1. The origin of dancing. 2. The elements of value in dancing. 3. The downward tendency of dancing in ancient and modern times. 4. The line that separates the safe and proper from the unsafe and improper dancing. 5. The attitude of the church and the individual in view of modern conditions.

Your reporter, in his desire to write a sensational story, failed utterly to record the substance or spirit of my message. He placed upon my lips one expression, at least, thoroughly opposite to mine.

I ask that you publish this note today, assigning it a position equal in prominence to that given to the report of my sermon.

Yours respectfully,
DUNBAR H. OGDEN.

STANDARD OIL TO ENTER SOUTH AMERICAN FIELDS Purchases Three Oil Companies in Peru, Says New York Times

NEW YORK, Dec. 1.—The expansion on a large scale of the Standard Oil company, of New Jersey, to the South American fields is indicated, according to a story published today by the New York Times, which gives details of a letter sent out to stockholders of the Imperial Oil company, of Canada, calling a special meeting at Harris, Ont., next Tuesday to ratify the purchase by the Imperial company of three oil companies of Peru. The Imperial Oil company, it is stated, is controlled by the Standard Oil company, of New Jersey.

The meeting of the Imperial company, it is stated, has been called to ratify the purchase of control of the London and Pacific Petroleum Oil company, Ltd., the West Coast Oil Fuel company, and the Lagunitas Oil company, Ltd., made on April 7 and July 27, and to turn them over to the International Petroleum company, Ltd. To the fourth, the Lottio Oil Field company, Ltd., it is said, had been given the opportunity of coming into the combination through an offer to shareholders of five shares of stock in the new company for each one that they hold. The concern is the one said to be controlled by the Standard, of New Jersey.

DENIES HE CAUSED SON TO LEAVE MOTHER
J. E. Evans, whose little son, Glenn, last night, created a scene in Judge Poulton's court Monday during the hearing of the divorce litigation between Evans and his wife, gives out a statement in which he says he had nothing to do with his son's running away from his mother, Mrs. Estelle Glenn Evans, last Sunday afternoon. Evans explained to the court that the boy had run away from his mother when Mrs. Evans, according to the father threatened to send the boy to a convent school in Washington, Ga. The court held that Evans was not in contempt after he had explained the boy's actions.

Good News From France! Our Final Shipment of the Renowned Trefousse Gloves

Hundreds of hands will be outstretched to greet them, because Trefousse Gloves are known to thousands of women as BEST.

TREFOUSSE gloves are among the best gloves made in France. Because of the war we didn't expect to get them, but here they are—thousands of pairs in Black with white stitching—white with black, and black, white and leading colors. Also the famous Chant gloves from France. In one or the other we can furnish every size, style and color, at $1.50. Trefousse gloves also at $2.00.

Note—Upon request each pair of gloves will be placed in a neat Xmas box. (Gloves—Main Floor, Left.)

$2 Sterling Silver Trimmed Silk Encased Umbrellas $1.05

THE importer had a surplus of 325 carved and plain mission and ebony trimmed umbrella handles—all Sterling Silver trimmed.

Taking them over at practically a next-to-nothing price, we had them covered with American taffeta (silk and cotton).

The covering is silk finish, warranted fast color and waterproof.

Frames are 26 and 28 inches; umbrellas are in styles for men and women.

Each umbrella is encased in silk cover; and finished with silk tassel trimming. Actual values are $1.50 and $2. Choice, tomorrow, is $1.05. (Umbrellas—Main Floor, Right.)

GEORGIA CORN CLUB BOYS HAVE GREATEST EXHIBIT EVER SHOWN

and girls' Ham and Bacon club organization, over the state, and next year Mr. Downing intends to have a big exhibit of meats from peanut-fed and corn-fed hogs.

Still another feature of the show is the Kellogg corn trophy, which is a huge silver cup valued at $1,000 and awarded annually by the Kellogg Toasted Corn Flakes company, of Battle Creek, Mich., to the person raising the most nearly perfect ear of corn in the United States. The ear which won the trophy the last time, raised in the west, is on exhibit beside the trophy, in a glass case.

BOYS ARRIVING.
The Corn club boys began arriving in Atlanta Monday night in small parties, and are coming on trains from all directions Tuesday, and Wednesday morning they will go to the capital at 10 o'clock to be assigned to the homes where they will be entertained as honor guests during their stay in the city.

The chamber of commerce will furnish each boy with a room key, and will also insure their getting into and seeing everything arranged for their entertainment.

Together with the buttons there will be furnished to each boy a card with blank lines at the top for him to fill in his name, his home town, and the place where he is stopping, and below this a general outline of the program of the corn show and directions on how to take care of himself while here.

DIRECTIONS TO BOYS.
These directions read as follows: Read this card carefully and it will save you trouble. Keep it in your pocket.

Write your name at the top and with it the street and number where you are stopping.

Wednesday night, December 2, at the Chamber of Commerce building, corner Pryor street and Peachtree street, at 7:30 o'clock, there will be a special moving picture show by State College of Agriculture for corn club boys. Go. It will be free and a good one.

Thursday, 10 a. m., at the capital in the house of representatives there will be a great meeting of corn club boys with speeches by Governor Ransom, Dr. Soule and others. Diplomats for 100 corn club boys from all over the state will be attending.

Thursday at 2 p. m. the great parade of corn club boys from all over the state will be marching in a body to the Young Men's Christian association, 75 Lytle street, where they will see the new gymnasium and take a swim in the big pool.

Thursday night, 9 o'clock, Corn club boys attend the hog and hammer ball at the auditorium, corner Gilmer and Courland streets.

Wear your button all the time, so everybody will know you.

See how boys are invited to see the moving pictures at four places. They are the Grand opera house, peachtree and Pryor streets; the Montgomery, 87 Peachtree street; the Strand, Peachtree street; the Victoria, 74 Whitehall street. Don't go to others unless you have to pay.

If you get lost, ask a policeman, or call Bell telephone Main 372, headquarters of the corn show, or Main 21, police headquarters, and Atlanta phone 21, police headquarters.

SEATS ALREADY ON SALE FOR BUNTING AT LYRIC

There is such an interest in the coming engagement of Little Emma Bunting at the Lyric theater, that the management has opened the box office at the theater several days prior to custom.

Emma Bunting's visit of two weeks will commence on Monday, December 1, and will continue for two weeks only. During the first week the bill will be "What Happened to Mary?" the screen success that has been dramatized. The second week will be devoted to the presentation of "The Song of the Storm Country," the play written for Miss Bunting by Russell Hatcher and originally produced here at the Lyric.

The scale of prices during the engagement of Miss Bunting will be the same as when she played in the Lyric on other engagements. The evening performances are scheduled for 8:15 o'clock and the Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday afternoon performances at 2:30 o'clock.

WIFE CHARGES HUSBAND LIVED WITH AFFINITY

On a warrant sworn out by Mrs. A. A. Speece, of 59 Germania street, Miss Gertrude Stinchcomb, of 21 McDaniel street, was placed under arrest Monday afternoon by Deputy Marshal E. V. Lasater, of the municipality court. She was allowed to make a $200 bond.

According to the statement of Mrs. Speece to Deputy Lasater, her husband has been living for several weeks with Miss Stinchcomb.

The latter's mother, however, when the arrest was made, told the deputy that her daughter was recently married in Cobb county to another woman.

No charge has been made against Speece.

NO ONE KNOWS THE LADY OF THE MASK shown in this picture. She is a popular society girl, a debutante, who committed to nose in the costume of the Carnival Queen only on condition that her identity be kept secret. From the diadem to the tip of the train, the costume is exactly as it will be worn at the Hog and Hominy parade Thursday afternoon and the ball at night.

Germans Active in Belgium
Monday, Says Paris Note

PARIS, Dec. 1.—The French official communication given out in Paris this afternoon says that yesterday the enemy showed considerable activity north of Arras. In Belgium there was a five-day exchange of artillery, but no infantry attack.

The text of the communication follows:

"In Belgium there was a rather spirited artillery fire during the day of November 26, but no attack was made by the German infantry."

"The enemy continued to show considerable activity to the north of Arras."

"In the region of the Aisne there was intermittent artillery fire along all the front. In the Argonne the fighting continued, but without bringing any change in the situation."

"In the Vosges there is nothing to report."

Germans Claim Capture of 9,500 More Russians
BERLIN, Dec. 1.—(By wireless to London.)—The following official announcement was given out in Berlin today:

"There is no news to hand from the western arena of the war. In East Prussia and in southern Poland it was generally quiet yesterday. In northern Poland, south of the Vistula, our war booty was increased still further as a result of the successes announced yesterday."

"The number of prisoners taken by us has been increased by about 9,500 men, and we have taken nineteen more cannons. In addition twenty-six machine guns and numerous ammunition carts fell into our hands."

No Revolts in Morocco and Algeria, Declare French

WASHINGTON, Dec. 1.—The French embassy today received dispatches from its foreign office denying an alleged revolt against conscription in Morocco and Algeria.

The German news agencies, the message says, "are spreading the information that the situation in Morocco is very bad and that severe fighting has taken place in which the French have suffered heavy losses. The report states that the revolt was caused by Moroccans and Algerians who did not wish to serve in the army. The French government wishes it known that this is absolutely false and without foundation and that condition in the colonies are good."

Dwarf, 37 Inches High,
Defies Decatur Street
But Can't Raise Scrap

When Monroe Donnell, forty-five years old, but only thirty-seven inches tall, walked into the middle of the street at the corner of Decatur street and Piedmont avenue Tuesday noon and offered to kick any man, big or little, it created such a sensation that traffic was temporarily blocked.

The crowd which gathered was stupefied by the belittling attitude of the little man. Nobody offered to take up the challenge, but all stood and stared. Street cars were halted, automobiles stopped, wagons foundered in the mob.

Finally Officer Steve Felder, investigating the excitement, persuaded Monroe to abandon his fighting tactics and accompany him to the station house.

There Monroe was placed on the sleepers' dock, and calm once more reigned over Decatur street.

TWO WORLD-FAMOUS MINSTREL STARS HERE WITH FUNNIEST SHOW

Primrose and Wilson, Past Masters of Blackface Craft, Open Engagement in Atlanta Tonight

Shoulder to shoulder, just as they should in that long ago day when old Jack Haverly taught the blackface trade, trained the two Georges through Atlanta's streets Tuesday morning. Behind them swept their train of minstrels, grave in streamers of vermillion and Prussian blue, while the band played "You're Here and I'm There," but it wasn't the crowds nor the step nor the success of their performance at the Atlanta theater that George Wilson and George Primrose were thinking about.

It was the yesterday of minstrelsy when they went to school to old Jack Haverly, that gripped their hearts, and they thought that after thirty-five long years of separation, they were together again last night.

"You're here and I'm here," George said. "You're here and I'm here and you're here," George, hummed back George Primrose.

That time sounded awfully good to him. For this year of 1914 is the first time they could sing to each other, of any time like it, since they parted company in 1878.

For their comrades in those old days—Law Bookstader, Billy West, Milt Barlow, George Thatcher, Carl Rankin, and the others—only law is left. The others have out their last caper and cracked their last joke.

When George Wilson parted with George Primrose back there in the seven years, and the firm of Barlow, Wilson, Primrose and West was dissolved their steps took paths that never crossed until today.

This was George Wilson's way: Will, Harlow and Wilson, minstrel; Will, Rankin and Wilson, minstrel; George Wilson and Wilson, the greatest favorite on the stage; played the old bedside opera house on Marietta street; Wilson and Rankin, and George Wilson, vaudeville artist.

And this was the road of George Primrose: Primrose and West, minstrel; Thatcher, Primrose and West, minstrel; Primrose and West, minstrel, the famous of companies; Primrose and Bookstader, together for six years; George Primrose, minstrel; George Primrose, vaudeville; once more Primrose and Bookstader.

Last year when Primrose and Bookstader separated again, the old-time partnership of Primrose and Wilson was formed. This is their first trip south in history, and they bring with them such a collection of comedians and "silly" as never tramped past the Klum fall house in the old days.

Let it not be thought for a minute that these memories of half-forgotten times have served to sadden the Georges (Wilson). Rather have they mellowed the pair into the rich revelry of rare old wit, inspired their toes to such dancing as only a master minstrel can produce, soiled their droolery into rare whimsy, and set their fellow funsters into a pale of humor.

You will see it if you attend their performance at the Atlanta, three nights, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, matinee Wednesday and Thursday, when the survivors of the golden age of minstrelsy will make merry with such a wisdom as would cause the ghost of old Jack Haverly, could he be beat then, to chuckle in his shroud.

VICTIM OF FOOTPADS HAS BEEN IDENTIFIED

Man Found Unconscious in Street Is Sam Caspogna. Money Is Missing

The victim of footpads Monday night, who was robbed and beaten and left unconscious in the street near the corner of Victoria and Gray streets, has been identified as Sam Caspogna, of 129 West Oak street.

The highwayman's victim was identified by C. Peppino, a cousin, who declares the injured man was preparing to leave the city Tuesday morning and that when last seen Monday by friends he was known to be carrying a considerable sum of money. Nothing was found in the Grady hospital by police officers, who answered a mysterious telephone call to Gray and Victoria streets and found Caspogna lying unconscious in the mud.

The victim has never recovered consciousness sufficiently to give the police in account of the robbery, but, according to hospital authorities, death may claim him before he gives his version of the assault.

The police found Caspogna shortly before midnight, and after daybreak Tuesday they returned to the spot where they found an iron bar, three feet in length and an inch and a half in diameter. The footpads evidently used this instrument to batter in the man's head, as it was bent near the middle and scattered with blood.

No one else near the spot was heard bearing the name Augustino Caspogna. On the back of the card was the following address: "Miss Gladys Parker, 23 Tilly street, New London, Conn."

LONG LINE OF PEOPLE WAIT FOR WAR STAMPS

A line of people which began far out in the corridor and extended into the offices of the collector of internal revenue in the federal building waited Tuesday morning for war stamps, which the act orders must be placed on various articles to meet the deficit of government revenue which followed the outbreak of the European war.

The office force has been continuously at work since last Saturday, and worked all night Monday getting everything in readiness.

The tax becomes operative Tuesday (December 1) and will continue in force until January.

QUIT MEAT? NO!

You need not stop eating meat for fear of your kidneys. Your system requires its strength-giving qualities. If, however, you feel that it sometimes works against you, just take two or three GOLD MEDAL Haarmen capsules each day for a couple of weeks, stop for a week, then begin again. There is nothing new and experimental about them. They are an old, harmless combination of oil and herbs, which will keep your kidneys and bladder working fine and carry away all rheumatic pains and effects from any uric acid producing food. But when you go to the drug store get the original Genuine Haarmen Oil in Capsules, GOLD MEDAL. They are imported direct from Holland.—(Adv.)

Fifty Hatsat
Fifty Hatsat

$1.50
$5.00

Many at $5.00. Just received from Estelle Mershon. The full force of the Chamberlin-Johnson-DuBose Co. rule of clearaway at work on the prices of hats!

The result is hats at $1.50, hats at $5.00 that are genuinely attractive. For it must be remembered these are not $1.50 and $5.00 hats. These prices are put upon them to clear them away quickly and effectively.

Most of the $5.00 hats are but just arrived from Estelle Mershon, of 20 East Forty-sixth Street, New York, so they are new and smart.

Street hats, hats for afternoon, small, medium and large shapes, flower, feather and ribbon trimmings. Any color one could want.

SANITATION IN ATLANTA IS POOR, SPEAKERS SAY

Peril Lies in Negro Districts and Cheap Laundries, White
Plague Foes Assert

That Atlanta is far from being a sanitary city was the statement made by speakers at the closing session of the Southern Anti-Tuberculosis conference, which met Monday at the chamber of commerce for the first convention since its organization.

Edward Butler, Georgia agent for the W. G. Raoul foundation, and Dr. Charles J. Hatfield, executive secretary of the National Association for the Study and Prevention of Tuberculosis, were the two speakers who made this statement.

They declared that the greatest peril to health in Atlanta was in the negro districts and in the cheap Chinese laundries. At the same time, they agreed that much was being done to eradicate the evil and that Atlanta was making a good fight against the white plague.

The speakers Monday afternoon were as follows: Dr. Charles J. Hatfield, Philadelphia, general secretary of the national association, on "The Operation and Maintenance of Local Hospitals for Tuberculosis"; Miss Nellie Brown, head visiting nurse of the Atlanta Visiting Nurses' association, on "Nursing Problems in Tuberculosis"; Joseph Logan, secretary of the "Atlanta Associated Families"; Dr. Donald B. Armstrong, director social welfare, of New York, on "The Home Hospital Experiment."

MAID CHASES BURGLAR FROM WHITNER HOME

Finds Negro Ransacking Bureau in Room of Her Employer

An exciting chase of a negro burglar by Cora Dills, the young white maid, Mrs. Charles Whitner, followed his discovery in the Whitner home, 65 Juniper street, late Monday afternoon.

Mrs. Whitner had been gone from the house but a few minutes, leaving no one there but the maid and the twenty-paroled son of the house. She instructed the maid to close the windows, which had been left open.

While making the rounds of the house, Miss Dills came upon the burglar as he was in the act of rifling the bureau drawers in Mrs. Whitner's room. The burglar leaped from the window carrying with him $5 in change, several calling cards and a pair of ladies gloves.

Miss Dills gave pursuit. She chased the burglar to the rear of the Whitner home, where he leaped over a "Coca-Cola" can. Officers were called and were furnished a description of the intruder by Miss Dills.

BURGLAR VISITS HOME OF POLICE SERGEANT

A number of gold watch pins, a savings bank containing $5, and a big police revolver was the lot obtained by a burglar at the home of Police Sergeant A. D. Locke, 5 West End avenue, Monday afternoon. The sergeant reported the loss of his son when he came to the station house a few hours later.

J. M. BIX INDICTED ON EMBEZZLEMENT CHARGE

J. M. Bix was indicted Monday by the Fulton county grand jury on two counts, embezzlement of $25 from the Royal Casualty company and larceny, after trial of $10 from A. M. Conway.

ROTARIANS' FEAST FOR BOYS GREAT SUCCESS

Lads Eat Turkey and Hear
Funny Stories From Minstrel Star

The Rotary club of Atlanta was host Tuesday afternoon to a batch of Atlanta boys at a "big brother" dinner in the chamber of commerce building. Each of the rotarians brought along with him, as his guest, some boy who has to make his own living and there were among those invited some of the "classiest" office boys, messengers and newboys in this city.

The boys were treated with turkey and cranberry sauce and all the other fixings that go with a real Thanksgiving dinner. They were the real "kings" of Atlanta for a few hours and they sure did comport themselves in a manner befitting royal personages. If they didn't see what they wanted they just asked for it and they got it. There was no restraining out upon how far they could go in "behaving themselves." The dinner was theirs and just as clubs do when they have honored guests, everything the lads had in mind to do, why they just went ahead and did it.

They got some dandy souvenirs and they saw a ten-round boxing bout between the champion newboy of Atlanta and the champion office boy of the world. Then George Primrose, the minstrel king, told them some stories that just set them laughing as though their sides would break. Mrs. Pearson sang some songs and the kids joined in the chorus. The Rev. Dr. Philip Atkinson, new dean of St. Philip's cathedral, told them the meaning of Thanksgiving and the boys listened attentively, which is an indication of how strong is Dr. Atkinson's hold on the youngsters.

Every rotarian told the characteristic of his kid-guest and there was a joy-spirit through the whole show. It was a unique stunt and it was worth much just to see those kids enjoy themselves. They each agreed they never had a better time since they were last at the 200.

How To Get Rid of a Bad Cough

A Home-Made Remedy that Will Do It Quickly, Cheap and Easily Made

If you have a bad cough or chest cold which refuses to yield to ordinary remedies, get from any druggist 25c quince of Pinex (50 cents worth), pour into a quart bottle and fill the bottle with granulated sugar syrup. Start taking a teaspoonful every hour or two. In 24 hours your cough will be conquered or you nearly so. Even whooping cough is greatly relieved in this way.

The above mixture makes a full pint—a family supply of the finest Pinex syrup that money could buy—at a cost of only 25c. Ready prepared in 5 minutes. Full directions with Pinex.

This Pinex and Sugar Syrup preparation takes right hold of a cough and gives almost immediate relief. It loosens the dry, loose or tight cough in a way that is really remarkable. Also quickly leads the individual to the relief which accompany a painful cough, and stops the formation of phlegm in the throat and bronchial tubes, thus ending the persistent loose cough. Excellent for bronchitis, spasmodic croup and winter coughs. Keeps perfectly and tastes good—children like it.

Pinex is a special and highly concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, rich in quinine, which is so healing to the membranes.

To avoid disappointment, ask your druggist for "25c quince of Pinex"—do not accept anything else. A guarantee of absolute satisfaction, or money promptly refunded goes with this preparation. The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

Salts Seal and Silk Plush Coats

Shipment of 350 on Sale Now

Every One a New Model with Wide Flaring Skirts

Many are fur trimmed—others have fur collars, all have satin linings. Wide belts, large armholes. Some with set-in sleeves. We do not believe a purchase of equal interest was ever advertised before, for these are all the most popular materials and the most popular styles of the season.

We illustrate three Coats which show the splendid style of Coats offered in this great sale.

There is style, finish and character in every line. Behind this is the reason—we insist upon the manufacturer using plenty of material (and it takes a lot of it) to give the correct full flare, generous facings, deep cuffs, wide belts and big, comfortable collars—we demand careful hand workmanship—we insist upon lustrous linings, which make a rich appearance when the coat is thrown open.

We are doing a tremendous business in Coats this season and it is just such wonderful values as here illustrated that have brought to us thousands of new customers.

Quality Coats $14.75

Here are some stunning coats that will demonstrate to you that there is no place like this store for procuring women's and misses' stylish apparel at a popular price.

Note particularly the style and cut of these coats. You cannot get such garments at the price every time you need a coat.

We are specializing on coats at this price. Nowhere else will you find such a beautiful showing of coats at the price—Hindu lynx cloth, zibelines, new friezes and rough finished English weave fabrics, in broad Scotch plaids, English checks; all colors, with braid-bound edges, or plain blue, brown, gray and green. There are handsome linings in most of them, unless the materials are sufficiently warm, soft and thick without a lining. These materials have not that stiffness usually found in the heavier fabrics.

Edgewood Avenue and Bell Street Corner Changes Hands. Dr. Crawford Sells Interest in Pace's Ferry Acreage for $28,714 - Mangum Street Corner Sells for $17,500. $17,200 Cash Sale on Merritt Avenue - Other Notes

Tuesday's assortment of real estate announcements was the largest in several months, and the prospects are for a good many other important announcements in the near future.

At least half a dozen agencies have announced on hand, and these will continue to be active in the real estate field.

EDGEMOND AVENUE SALE.
F. J. Crawford sold for Mrs. J. J. Crawford, the corner of Edgewood Avenue and Bell Street. This is a vacant lot fronting 84 feet on Edgewood Avenue and extending back to the rear line of the lot. It is valued at $17,200, or $121 a front foot.

PACE'S FERRY SALE.
Dr. J. M. Crawford has sold his interest in the Pace's Ferry Acreage for $28,714.

MANGUM STREET SALE.
The Ewing Realty company five lots on Hill, Sidney and Kelly streets, known as lots 14, 15, 24 and 25 of their subdivision on the Grand avenue. The price was $17,500.

INDUSTRIAL SUBDIVISION.
Papers have just come to record concerning the Ewing Realty company's subdivision of land on the Southern railway at an acreage subdivision of 100 acres.

SALES.
These sales have never before been announced, but were made in the past year and a half. The company plans to build a large factory on the site, offering manufacturing sites with railroad access.

THE PROPERTY IS ACCESSIBLE TO THE RAILROAD.
The property is accessible to the railroad and has good street car service.

MANY DEEDS RECORDED.
A big assortment of real estate transfers went to record Monday afternoon and Tuesday morning.

SMITH & EWING SOLD FOR THE COLES.
The Smith & Ewing sold for the Coles a large tract of land on the corner of Markham and Mangum streets. This consists of a two-story brick building on a lot 73-2x100. It is held under lease by the Westinghouse Electric company.

MERRITT AVENUE SALE.
The same agency sold for H. O. Reese to C. G. Harris, trustee, the corner of Merritt Avenue and Woodrow place. The consideration was $17,500, all cash.

THIS PROPERTY CONSISTS OF ELEVEN TRACTS.
This property consists of eleven tracts, all of which are now being sold by the same agency.

SMITH & EWING SOLD TO A CLIENT FOR $11,500.

FUND IS COLLECTED FOR SLAIN OFFICER'S CHILDREN

Friends of F. L. Peek Hope to Raise at Least $1,000 for Family

Subscriptions to a fund for the support of the three children of Fletcher L. Peek, the county policeman who was killed near Battle Hill Thanksgiving day, are being collected throughout the city and county by friends.

Chief George Matheson, of the county force, headed the fund with a personal check for $25 and A. P. Stewart, county tax collector, W. C. Stevens, produce merchant, and Mrs. J. M. Carroll, wife of Lieutenant Carroll of the county force, each $10; D. H. McGivern, $5; Frank Haralson, $5; and M. P. Packer, $5, making the total Tuesday morning $17.50.

The fund is for the support and education of the children, the oldest of whom is eleven years. W. C. Stevens, who started the campaign, hopes to raise at least $1,000.

Mr. Peek was for about two years a member of the city police force, later going to the county force. He was an exceptionally faithful officer, a conscientious performer of his duty and was highly esteemed by his comrades and all who knew him.

Persons who wish to contribute to the fund are asked to send their money and checks to Chief Matheson, at the Fulton county court house.

County Officer J. T. Carter, a partner of the slain officer, will be in the headquarters of the county police each day to receive and take charge of contributions.

USE OF NEW REVENUE STAMPS IS EXPLAINED

Many inquiries have been received at the postoffice regarding the new revenue stamps to be used in accordance with the "war tax act" which has just gone into effect.

This act, it is explained, does not apply to parcel post. Revenue stamps are not good for postage stamps, nor are postage stamps good where revenue stamps are used. The revenue stamps are not sold at the regular stamp windows, but only by collector of Customs A. O. Blalock.

"WHERE IS THE CHURCH?" IS SUBJECT OF SERMONS

All Catholics and Non-Catholics Invited to Hear Rev. James Hickey

A course of sermons on "Where is the Church?" will be preached by Rev. James Hickey during 1914 Advent at St. Anthony's church, West End, every Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock.
